

Daniel R. Storkamp

Data Quest, LLC

DataQ7.com

(651) 730-6718

Achievements:

- Managed a $65 million agency with over 500 employees.
- Defended agency policy, budget and bonding legislative agendas.
- Designed methodologies, obtained funding and implemented many complex projects.
- Presented to and participated in state, local and national groups, task forces and conferences.
- Established projections and bed capacities as a basis for millions in budget request.
- Manipulated large, complex data sets, such as Criminal History and Driver License files.

Professional Experiences:

Deputy Director

Administrative Dir/Finance Dir/Legislative Dir

Minnesota Sex Offender Program

June 2008 – Present

January 2008 – June 2008

St. Paul, Minnesota 55164

Department management responsibilities include decision making process of the agency's $130 million biennial budget; managing over 500 staff through 7 direct reports, establishing agency wide policies and procedures; problem-solving agency wide issues; and monitoring overall agency activities.

Administrative management responsibilities include managing all fiscal, information and technology, human resources, policy/legal, diversity, research and evaluation, interagency activities, and agency office services. Legislative liaison responsibilities include defining/preparing agency legislative initiatives, presenting/defending agency legislative proposals, tracking legislative actions on department issues, and negotiating legislative budget and policy decisions.

Director of Information and Technology

Assistant Commissioner – Management Services Div.

Legislative Liaison

Research and Planning/Interagency Management Manager

Minnesota Department of Corrections

August 2003 – June 2008

July 2002 – June 2003

Dec. 2001 – August 2003

Oct. 1996 – August 2003

St. Paul, Minnesota 55108

Department management responsibilities include participating in the decision process of the agency's $750 million biennial budget; establishing agency wide policies and procedures; problem-solving agency wide issues; and monitoring overall agency activities. Division head responsibilities include managing a $14 million budget and over 150 staff covering all fiscal, technology, human resources, policy/legal, diversity, and office services for the department. Legislative liaison responsibilities include defining/preparing agency legislative initiatives, presenting/defending agency legislative proposals, tracking legislative actions on department issues, and negotiating legislative budget and policy decisions. Manager responsibilities include overseeing the department's Information technology division, research and evaluation unit, interagency activities, and agency office services. Project management responsibilities included developing and monitoring agency prison population projections that translates into to the department's multi-million dollar base adjustment annually; implementing a web-based statewide supervision repository for a decentralized 110 office probation system; and conducting agency-wide and corrections system-wide projects, such as a per diem reduction plan to reduce the department's budget by $18 million and establishing statewide standards for sex offender management for community supervision, treatment, and polygraph use.

Daniel R. Storkamp

Director

Researcher

Criminal Justice Center
Minnesota Planning

Nov. 1991 - Oct. 1996

Feb. 1990 - Nov. 1991

300 Centennial Building
St. Paul, Minnesota 55155

Managed the planning, coordination and implementation of the research, analysis and evaluation efforts; obtained and analyzed statewide criminal justice operational data bases; and established a clearinghouse function of criminal justice research and information. Designed research and evaluation projects, obtained funding through grants, hiring staff, managed projects, and managed budgets. Presented research findings; attending and participating in interagency justice policy committees, task forces and conferences; and representing the agency's interest in justice policy.

Computer Consultant

Catholic Charities – Caritas Family Services Division
St. Cloud, Minnesota

1988 - 1990

Consultant responsibilities included creating centralized statistical reports for all units within the Caritas Family Services division; computerizing all agency monthly reports, annual reports, and reporting processes; and instructing staff on computer usage, customized software packages, and report generating.

Proprietor

Meldark Wreaths
Pierz, Minnesota 56364

1981 - 1985

Co-owner responsibilities included developing a business plan; establishing a company mission and goals; managing human resources including work force of over 25 part-time employees; processing all financial transactions (payroll, accounting, etc); and fostering a positive relationship with the local community.

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Marketing, 1989

Bachelor of Science in Applied Sociology, 1989

St. Cloud State University; St. Cloud, Minnesota

Active Member of Entrepreneurial Club, Sociology Club, and Chess Club

Daniel R. Storkamp

Recent Trainings/Seminars:

| | |
|---|----------------|
| Advanced Strategic Improvement Practices Conference | September 2010 |
| Bringing Innovation to Governing in Minnesota | August 2010 |
| MN ATSA Conference | April 2010 |
| Statewide Managers Conference | October 2009 |
| Statewide Managers Conference | October 2009 |
| Six Sigma Green Belt and Black Belt training | Jan-Dec 2007 |
| Global Justice XLM – Corrections | January 2006 |
| Results Management Colloquium | February 2005 |
| Colloquium – Legislating for Results | August 2004 |
| CriMNet Business Process Re-Engineering | August 2003 |
| Performance Measurement Training | August 1999 |

Awards and Achievements:

| | |
|---|----------------|
| Process Improvement, Certified Black Belt | January 2008 |
| Minnesota Office of Technology – Technology Collaboration Award | December 2006 |
| Honorable Mention American Corrections Assc. Best in the Business | June 2003 |
| Minnesota Corrections Association Presidents Award | October 2002 |
| Minnesota Department of Corrections Achievement Award | June 2000 |
| Governor Ventura Certificate of Commendation | May 1999 |
| Phillip Hoke Award for Excellence in Analysis | October 1996 |
| Minnesota Planning Employee Achievement Award | July 1996 |
| Phillip Hoke Award for Excellence in Analysis | September 1992 |

